2 Samuel 6:1-5. 12b-19; Psalm 24; Ephesians 1:1-14; Mark 6:14-29

As a community of faith we strive to be Christ-centred as we worship joyfully, serve faithfully, care for one another lovingly and outreach enthusiastically with our words and ac

Sentence of the day:

Of Jesus, many said, “What is the wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands!” (Mark 6:2)

Collect of the Day:

O Lord our God, you are always more ready to bestow your good gifts upon us than we are to seek them; and more willing to give than we desire or deserve: in our every need, grant us the first and best of all your gifts, the Spirit who makes us your children. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

A reading from the Second Book of Samuel (5:1-5,9-10)

Then all the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron, and said, ‘Look, we are your bone and flesh. For some time, while Saul was king over us, it was you who led out Israel and brought it in. The LORD said to you: It is you who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you who shall be ruler over Israel.’ So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron; and King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel. David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned for forty years. At Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months; and at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years. David occupied the stronghold, and named it the city of David. David built the city all around from the Millo inwards. And David became greater and greater, for the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm 48

1Great is the Lord and highly to be praised, •

in the city of our God.

2His holy mountain is fair and lifted high, •

the joy of all the earth.

3On Mount Zion, the divine dwelling place, • stands the city of the great king.

4In her palaces God has shown himself • to be a sure refuge.

5For behold, the kings of the earth assembled • and swept forward together.

6They saw, and were dumbfounded; • dismayed, they fled in terror.

7Trembling seized them there;
they writhed like a woman in labour, •
as when the east wind shatters the ships of Tarshish.

8As we had heard, so have we seen in the city of the Lord of hosts, the city of our God: •
God has established her for ever.

9We have waited on your loving-kindness, O God, •
in the midst of your temple.

10As with your name, O God,
so your praise reaches to the ends of the earth; •
your right hand is full of justice.

11Let Mount Zion rejoice and the daughters of Judah be glad, • because of your judgements, O Lord.

12Walk about Zion and go round about her;
count all her towers; •
consider well her bulwarks; pass through her citadels,

13That you may tell those who come after that such is our God for ever and ever. •
It is he that shall be our guide for evermore.

SECOND READING

A reading from the Second Letter to the Corinthians (12:2-10)

I know a person in Christ who fourteen years ago was caught up to the third heaven—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows. And I know that such a person—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know; God knows— was caught up into Paradise and heard things that are not to be told, that no mortal is permitted to repeat. On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except of my weaknesses. But if I wish to boast, I will not be a fool, for I will be speaking the truth. But I refrain from it, so that no one may think better of me than what is seen in me or heard from me, even considering the exceptional character of the revelations. Therefore, to keep me from being too elated, a thorn was given to me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I appealed to the Lord about this, that it would leave me, but he said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.' So, I will boast all the more gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities for the sake of Christ; for whenever I am weak, then I am strong.

Hear the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia. Alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me.

He sent me to bring good news to the poor.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL READING

+ The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark (6:1-13)

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

He left that place and came to his home town, and his disciples followed him. On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, 'Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?' And they took offence at him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Prophets are not without honour, except in their home town, and among their own kin, and in their own house.' And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. He said to them, 'Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them.' So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

For the Gospel of the Lord,
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer of Discernment for a new Priest

Bountiful God, give to this parish
a faithful pastor
who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments;
an encourager who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give warm
and generous hearts,
for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

On the lighter side...

Shortly after tying the knot, a young married couple started arguing over who should make the coffee. Being a good Christian, the wife went to the scriptures for her answer. She said that the Bible specifically stated that men should be the ones to make the coffee.

Puzzled, the husband asked her where in the Bible it said that. Very confidently, the wife opened up her Bible and said: “It’s right here—HEBREWS.”
